

FINE ART AND DESIGN

Central London is a perfect location in which to study Art and Design with its amazing diversity of galleries and museums.

Students are encouraged to develop their analytical and expressive skills in a range of different media. An adventurous and enquiring approach is encouraged in the interpretation of visual experiences from the world around us and from past and contemporary artists and designers.

With the help of close instruction and supervision, students acquire an ability to complete structured projects and build portfolios of their work.
